

Route Information

Route Name Little Mell Fell, Great Mell Fell, and Gowbarrow

A combination of the three closest fells. Each fell is a distinct hill, all with different views across the Lake District, the Penninnes, and on good days across to Scotland (Dumfries and Galloway). None of the fells on their own are very strenuous, but the combination makes for a good day out. The route can be walked both ways with no real difference. A shortcut is possible between Greenrow and Brownrigg, but unless it is a dry spell, it is a very damp experience to cross the valley bottom. You are welcome to take this with you for the walk, and/or borrow a laminated map.

Route Summary

Total Distance	11.6mi (18.7km)	Walk	6h 41min
Elevation	808ft at lowest point	Run	2h 4min
	1752ft at highest point
Total Ascent	3492ft

Elevation Profile

